OUTREACH EDUCATOR

ADK (Adirondack Mountain Club) works to protect New York State wild lands and waters by promoting responsible outdoor recreation and building a statewide constituency of land stewardship advocates. Since 1922, the organization has worked to increase access to the backcountry by building trails, conserving natural areas, and developing a stewardship community that supports the ethical and safe use of New York's outdoor spaces. A member, donor, and volunteer-supported organization, ADK reaches across New York through its 27 chapters to inspire people to enjoy the outdoors ethically.

POSITION SUMMARY

The Outreach Educator works as a part of ADK's (Adirondack Mountain Club) Education team at the Heart Lake Program Center (HLPC) in Lake Placid, NY. This role is an exciting opportunity to grow your skillset as an educator and start to develop skills in program coordination. There are two major components to this dynamic position: environmental interpretation and program planning. As a member of the Outreach team, this role leads and supports educational programming that connects participants with the outdoors and promotes responsible recreation. This position also flexes to support the education department in fulfilling daily tasks, developing programming, and other duties as assigned.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Environmental Interpretation – 60%

- Facilitate ADK's fourth grade school outreach programming, including classroom visits to local schools, leading students on hikes and occasional virtual programming
- Lead other elementary school outreach programming
- Develop environmental interpretation programs
- Lead guided hikes and paddles at Cascade Welcome Center and the Heart Lake Program Center
- Engage in public and community outreach
- Develop educational signage and displays for ADK's interpretive facilities

Program Planning and Special Projects – 40%

- Support daily functions of the education department, including program development, special projects, program preparation and other duties as assigned
- Flexibility to self-select some projects based on interests and skills

QUALIFICATIONS

Basic:

- A passion for outdoor education and a commitment to the mission, values, and vision of the Adirondack Mountain Club

- Educational background in environmental education/interpretation, natural history, natural sciences, outdoor recreation, or related field
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills, public speaking, professionalism, and outdoor leadership capabilities
- Act as professional role model for ADK, demonstrating at all times a stewardship ethic and responsible wilderness leadership
- Ability to work both independently and as a team member
- Ability and willingness to navigate up to 5 miles by foot over rough, steep, terrain with a day-pack.
- High level of organizational skills to effectively plan, teach, and administer the diverse demands of the job, and keep detailed records
- Willingness to work extended hours/days in the field
- Motivated, enthusiastic, creative, and willing to work with people of all ages
- Employment is contingent on passing a background check
- Valid driver's license and willingness to drive a large 14 passenger van

Preferred:

- Previous experience working in education, outdoor recreation, or a nature/visitor center
- Previous experience working with families with children
- Familiarity with flora and fauna of the Adirondacks
- Basic level of competence with trip logistics: route identification, navigation, equipment needs, dietary requirements and food packing, and group dynamics and conflict resolution
- Current Wilderness First Aid (WFA) or Wilderness First Responder (WFR) or equivalent medical/first aid training
- A valid New York State Guide's License or willingness to obtain
