Having previously read and signed Adirondack Mountain Club 's Acknowledgment of Risk statement & Release of Liability, I, _____, understand and accept the possible risks involved with separating from the _____ group.
(name of program/activity)

I am choosing of my own free will to depart from the planned program and hike on my own. I understand and agree that in leaving the ADK program and activity, I am completely responsible for my own safety and the Adirondack Mountain Club will be under no legal obligation whatsoever for my safety and well-being after I leave the ADK program and activity set forth above. I further acknowledge that all of outdoor recreation (including, but not limited to, hiking, skiing, and rock climbing) have a higher level of risk than most ordinary activities and therefore can be potentially hazardous and/or dangerous. I acknowledge that risk is always a factor when participating in outdoor recreational activities, especially when weather is adverse or unpredictable, or when unforeseen events or conditions create hazardous conditions. There are many risks, both natural and/or man-made, that could lead to injury or death while engaging in outdoor recreational activities. By voluntarily departing from the planned program, I agree to indemnify and hold harmless ADK, its employees, staff and its affiliates with respect to any claims, damages, losses, liabilities, and all costs and expenses of defense, including but not limited to attorneys' fees, resulting directly or indirectly from any claims that arise in connection with my early departure from the planned program.
